RG104 E-1 Box 181

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C. April 14, 1893.

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have received your letter of the 13th instant, submitting a detailed estimate of the the cost of executing certain coinage for the Venezuelan Government. I approve of your estimate. I must confess it staggered me a little to-day to see you jump from $7,000 to $45,000. I had told them , roughly, that it would be somewhere between $15,000 and $20,000, based on your estimate of $7,740 but at the same time informed them that they would receive an official estimate.

very respectfully,

Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 181

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
April 14, 1893

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I have received you letter of the 13th instant, submitting a detailed estimate of the cost of executing certain coinage for the Venezuelan Government. I approve of your estimate. I must confess it staggered me a little to-day to see you jump from $7,000 to $45,000. I had told them, roughly, that it would be somewhere between $15,000 and $20,000, based on your estimate of $7,740, but at the same time informed them that they would receive an official estimate.

Very respectfully,
E.O. Leech
Director.